CARTE POSTALE

MONK BAR, YORK. Probably so called from an adjoining Monastic building, is the tallest of the four main gates. Like the others, it has a Norman core, encased later in the Decorated period. On the battlement outside are the arms of France quartered with those of England. Here one may mount the wall and follow it round its north-west angle. According to Defoe, "Robinson Crusoe, mariner, was born in the city of York in the year 1632."
